Sharing God's love in Constable Country and the Tendring Hundred

Dear friends,

Autumnal greetings! As ever there is much happening in our parishes at this time and we hope you find something that will whet your spiritual appetite and feed your faith (some flyers further on):

- Café Church in Wix – Sunday 12 October at 3 o'clock in the village hall
- Colchester Chamber Choir concert in Dedham – Sunday, 12 October at 6 o'clock
- Afternoon teas in Beaumont – Monday, 13 October 2-4 o'clock in the village hall
- Revive@5 in Dedham: Transformed – Sunday, 19 October
 - This month we welcome Sue Hunt, author of 'I once was a buddhist nun'. Sue became a Christian and served as a missionary first with Jackie Pullinger in Hong Kong and then in Thailand. Come and hear how her life was transformed! Refreshments from 4.30pm.
- Sorted! for 14-18 year olds – Saturday, 8 November all day in London
 - Contact Claire Arculus on 07752 201 441 if you know any young people who might be keen to join our group heading to the capital that day
- Deanery Confirmation Service in Dedham – Thursday, 11 December at 19h30
- New Wine Leadership Conference – 24-26 February 2026
 - We are hoping to get a group of us together to go to this conference. Please contact Caroline Allen (carolineallen34@btinternet.com) to register your interest

October is Pledge Month in our parishes. This is the time in the year when we consider our giving to the work of God's Kingdom in our midst, as we give thanks for what He has done (and is doing) and consider how we can contribute to all that He may do in our midst in the year ahead.

Best wishes,
Phillip

"...you know the grace of our Lord and King Jesus, that though He was rich, yet for your sake He became poor, so that you, through His poverty, might become rich."
